Our parents cared, we care and I hope our children will show respect for the building, and staff, and students just as we have.

Kevin Short

The many views we take on student life at P.H.S. all cover a central theme . . . the pride, the community, faculty, administration, and students take in their school. From its beginning to the present . . . from the old high school on the hill to our present building . . . the school has and is the center, the heart of Pocahontas. The angles of life . . . from leaders to doers . . . from brains to brawn . . . lend a reality to the presence of this year's theme "SHOWING OUR PRIDE."

The 1987 Senior Class takes pride in the fact that we are graduating at P.H.S. During our early years at P.H.S. we set the goals we wanted to achieve and worked hard to make our dreams come true. Now we are taking our final steps in adolescence and our first steps in adulthood.

To the administration and faculty we say "Thank You." You were our leaders as well as our friends.

We hope the accomplishments we leave behind will inspire others to set their goals and work to fulfill their dreams!

Remember Me

Remember me
When I go away
Hold me in thought
From day to day.

Within your heart
Keep me there
Think of me
With love and prayer.

For I was born
In this place too
Each memory I hold
I share with you.

The time has come
The future is here
For I am a senior
And this is my year.

The heart has many seasons,
Just as this good old earth,
And they all combine together,
To comprise what we are worth.
There is a childhood innocence,
In which we dream and play,
There is a time for growing up,
And making our own way.
There is a time for keeping,
And a time for letting go,
A time for moving swiftly,
And a time for walking slow.
There is a time for learning,
And a time for teaching, too,
And there is time for resting,
When all the chores are through.
We all know joy and sorrow,
'Tis written in the plan,
But Heaven waits beyond life's gates,
For every earnest man.
Each life has many pictures,
And all a work of art,
But what a silver symphony,
. . . The seasons of the heart.

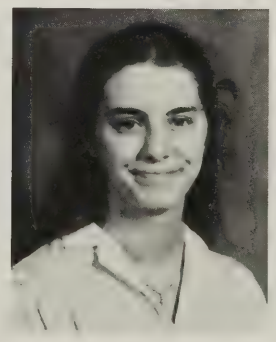
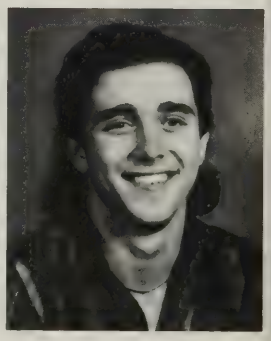
"WORLDLY JUNIORS"

Sandy Thomas

Shannon Thorpe



Cynthia Yopp



Robert Youther

The junior class is moving up and getting ready for their senior year. Each day they spend should be with happiness and pleasure to make their days more memorable.

In their junior days, "Bon Jovi" was voted as the number one rock singer with his song "Livin' On A Prayer." The juniors felt this song inspired a feeling of love and friendship that every person should try and achieve.

"Porkys'" was a well known movie for the junior class because of its humor. This movie showed the lighter side of the life of teenagers and how their days were spent in high school. Even though this movie is a few years old, its theme spans the years with memories common to all teenagers.

The majority of the class voted — GET THIS — "Alf" as their favorite television program. "This is a show everyone should see," said most students. Coming in a close second was the "Bill Cosby Show." The humor of both shows has appeal to the juniors . . . a wild and crazy bunch!

The final area of memorabilia surveyed is near and dear to all our hearts . . . FOOD. As might be expected the favorites were those long time top vote getters Pizza and Hamburgers.

To the juniors all these items, and many many more, become part of their memories to be carried throughout the years.

FRESHMAN PRIDE

Whether at work or at play, the freshmen show their pride in all they do. In the classroom they are attentive, hardworking and eager. They are ambitious and set their goals high. Many participate in sports, clubs and other extracurricular activities.

When thinking of the freshmen, pride and spirit come to mind. The class won the spirit contests at both Homecoming and on Pep Night. Class members are always cheery and peppy. The freshmen take pride not only in themselves, their class, and the other students at P.H.S. but in all aspects of student life at P.H.S.

Junior High students presented many laughable occasions this year, especially to themselves. From running to get to class, or trying to get their lockers open for the first time, each added a little ray of sunshine to everyone's day. All were willing to ask questions or ask for help. After all, this is the only way to learn.

As you, the junior high, begin to mature and look back on your childhood days and laugh. Always remember to make the best out of life.

TAKE ME OUTA HERE

The Class of 1991 has only just begun their climb to the top. Some will fall along the wayside but most will hold on until the most memorable day of their lives — Graduation Day!

Most 8th graders are hard-working and dedicated to receiving an education which will help them be successful in their chosen profession.

As their final days in Junior High, every 8th grader comes to an end, to prepare themselves for their first year in High School. You're almost Freshmen.

No two people are alike. We share similar experiences and yet we all react differently. We are artists and athletes, philosophers and comedians. We are all special; all unique in some way. The uniqueness is quite evident in our athletes who sacrifice their time and expand their energy to represent our school. Sometimes they are winners of the contest and sometimes they are winners by having given everything they physically and mentally had to give. But win, lose, or draw . . . they're our athletes and they're special.

The Band Shows Their PRIDE . . .

The Snow Court is sponsored by Mr. Erskine's band annually, and candidates are chosen from each grade level. They must participate in or with the band in some way. The band members vote and finally a queen is chosen.

A time is set for the crowning of the Queen, and as the days turn to hours, we find ourselves with racing heartbeats, sweaty palms, butterflies in our stomachs. The dance is about to begin.

The semi-formal dance is always accompanied by an exceptional band. This year Flash Dance was present. Debbie Payne was crowned as Queen and was escorted by Heath Kennedy. What a night to remember! Congratulations!

WHAT A GROUP!!!

In Looks, Personality, & Talent
We show our pride . . .

Fun! Fun! Fun! Homecoming is one of the most memorable times at P.H.S. With activities occurring for a whole week, there's plenty for everyone to participate in: Class Day with hats and bandanas, sunglasses, rolled-up pants legs, and T-shirts galore! Inside-out Day, the one day you can "accidentally" put your clothes on wrong and 'actually' be in style! Orange and Black Day, when spirit fills the school. Crazy Day, just when you thought you knew all you could about your friends, you find out their 'true personalities!' And Dress-up Day, when the persons you least expected to see dressed-up come to school looking better than ever! Now that's some week! But wait . . . there's more! How can you forget the good-looking girls and guys and all the decorations that goes along with it? Wow! What a week! Just look at all the FUN!!!

As the week progresses, the tension grows. The candidates have been chosen and there was one question on everyone's mind . . . "Who will be crowned QUEEN?" Soon, the big night came. The crowd was excited about the big finale, and the candidates were ready. Finally, the announcer proclaims, "The Homecoming Queen for 1986 is Tina Horton escorted by Jerry Shupe!"

A WEEK OF FUN!!!

1987 May Day

The day of undeniable strength, agility, and beauty. The purpose of this annual event is to allow Pocahontas High School students to perform in various activities for the pleasure and honor of the May Queen, King, their court, and the members of the public audience. Those in attendance may view this spectacular occasion helping give their support to the performers and witnessing the crowning of the queen. This page in our annual is in honor of those in this year's May Day Court . . .

The band has worked hard this year to show their pride. They have lifted the spirit of the student body and parents by performing at parades and sports events. This group has spent a lot of time raising money for new uniforms. P.H.S. is truly proud to have a band like this to represent us.

THE 1987 ANNUAL STAFF

The 1987 Annual Staff has worked diligently in order to produce a yearbook that the student body can be proud of. Our hard work began over the summer when we collected ads from area businesses. We started off the school year with a sales campaign to encourage students to purchase an annual. The campaign consisted of a skit in which members of the annual staff dressed as different people found in the annual. To add a humorous touch to the skit the boys dressed like girls and the girls dressed like boys. The remainder of the year centered around meeting our deadlines. Due to the bad weather, this was not an easy task. We hope everyone enjoys the 1987 Wigwam. It was our intention to present a yearbook that reflects the entire student body, faculty, and staff in a positive way.

GARY LANE

We would like to extend our gratitude to Mr. Lane, who so patiently guided us throughout the year.

The computer club was organized to let the students have fun while they learned more about computers. Members have access to many useful materials like word processors but also fun things such as games and greeting card makers. This club is one of the most beneficial organizations in the school.

MODEL U.N.

This year the Model U.N. worked hard to accomplish the important task of world communication. Topics of their security council meetings included terrorism and nuclear free zones. This group of students showed everyone how concerned they were with peace and what they thought could be done to keep it.

Front: D. Boone, F. Steffey, T. Horton, M. Welch, T. Crist, M. LaSala, S. Asbury, A. Mahaffey, K. Stanley. Back: J. Parton, T. Roberts, B. Auton, D. Payne, M. Murphy, D. Billings, A. Shupe, W. Dotson, S. Byrd, T. Carter, T. Asbury, S. Rigney, C. Sabo. Sponsors: Bruce Wright, Melinda Robinette.

K.V.G.'s

K.V.G.'s show their pride not only in their school but also in their community and state. They are always ready to lend a helping hand when the need arises. K.V.G. stands for Keep Virginia Green. These men are service oriented to the environment.

Standing: Rodney Brewster, Billy Grose, Tony Paris, Sponsor: Clyne Wright. Kneeling: Robert Youther, Eric Williams, Larry Shrader, Charles Brewster.

SPEECH & DRAMA

P.H.S. has an abundance of talent when it comes to the performing arts. The Drama Club helps to showplace this talent by putting on skits and plays for the student body.

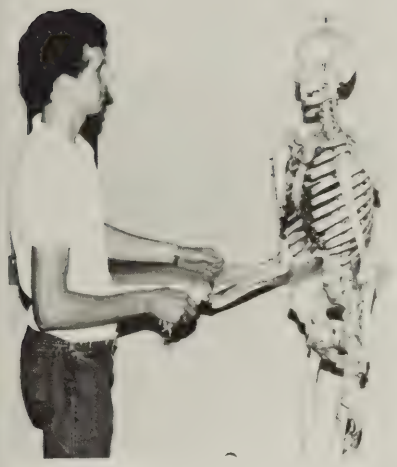
THE THINGS WE DO FOR

ATTENTION



You don't have to be crazy to work here, but it helps.

True, I have got a lot of style.

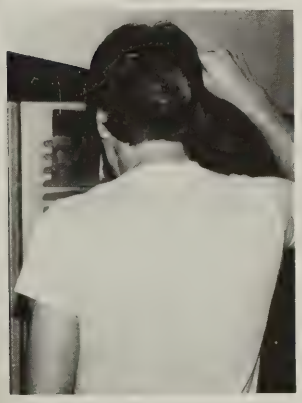
Why is he telling me this?

That's it. I'm leaving.

I believe in expressing myself.



It's not easy being who I am.

Style is my middle name.

Kids at P.H.S. are just starving for attention and they'll do anything to get it as anyone can see by looking at the students hamming it up on this page.

I don't need this.

You come here often.

PRIDE . . .

Abe Lincoln walked miles to get an education in a one-room school house and he became president. Although P.H.S. is a long way from a one-room school, it is still considered small. Because of its size, students receive a quality education.

. . . each teacher is able to give personalized help

. . . class sizes are kept to a minimum

. . . students know and can motivate each other

P.H.S. has the potential to give every student an excellent education.

Teresa Franklin

Many of the students at P.H.S. are really kind. Whenever you have a problem, you can always talk to another student. There is a closeness among the student body.

Missy Taylor

The student body at P.H.S. strives to do their very best at school work and everything school related. Most students at P.H.S. are interested in pursuing a career in which they will be successful.

Sheila Neel

The students, though small in number, are big in spirit. From school work to extracurricular activities we always take tremendous pride in what we do.

Donna Boone

Born to be wild.

Say Cheese!!

Move over Ronald McDonald.

THE WILD SIDE OF LIFE

Students at P.H.S. work hard to show their pride and achieve their goals, but all work and no play makes for a boring student. We escape the pressures of homework and tests by taking a walk . . . on THE WILD SIDE OF LIFE!!

Whatever it is I didn't do it!!!

"Party Flavors"

Party!!!

When I grow up . . .

What's so funny?
